

UNION COUNTY SHERIFF'S STAR

sheriff Patton Announces 2017 Deputy of the Year

Detective Shawn Golden was announced as the Union County Sheriff's Office, 2017 Deputy of the Year, at the annual awards ceremony held in January.

Shawn Golden is a 1989 graduate of Delaware Hayes High School, in Delaware, Ohio, where he was born and raised. Following High School, Shawn received his Associates Degree in Criminal Justice from Columbus State Community College in 1992. He then received his Ohio Peace Officer Certification from the Logan County Sheriff's Academy. Shawn began his law enforcement career at the Delaware County Sheriff's Office, where he served from 1992-1994, when he left to begin his career with Union County. Shawn has served as a Corrections Deputy and Patrol Deputy which led to his current position as a Detective in our Investigations Division. Shawn is a Detective of Major Crimes and a Crisis Negotiator. He has earned his certification as a Master Criminal Investigator and Master Evidence Technician from the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy.

Shawn follows in the footsteps of his Grandfather, Francis "Bill" Golden, who served Union County as a Deputy under Sheriff Amrine prior to retiring as the Police Chief of Plain City Police Department. Shawn's father, Floyd Golden, has also dedicated his life to Law Enforcement, retiring from the Ohio Highway Patrol, working for the Union County Sheriff's Office as a Lieutenant and currently serving as the Chief of Police for the Marysville Division of Police.

"Detective Shawn Golden is a great asset to the Union County Sheriff's Office Investigative Division," states Lt. Jeff Stiers, Commander of the Union County Sheriff's Office Investigations Division.

Shawn was nominated by his peers because of his excellent work ethic, dependability, great communication skills and his team work approach to his job. "Detective Golden's years of experience has given him vast knowledge of the job, which we rely on as a 'go to' person for questions." says Lt. Stiers.

Congratulations Det. Shawn Golden!

Sheriff Jamie Patton recognized Sheriff's Office staff members for their years of service. Those recognized were: Two Year Service Award: Seth McDowell, Jacob Matejko, Angel "Noel" Dickson, Sean Phelan, Andrea Schalip, Jaymie Williams and Matthew Bebout; Five Year Service Award: Ricky Garrison and Michael Casey; Ten Year Service Award: Rob Loudon and Alicia Bosch; Twenty Year Service Award: Matt Henry and Kevin Weller; Twenty-Five Year Service Award: Shawn Golden; Thirty Year Service Award: Tom Morgan. Receiving the Union County Sheriff's Office Years of Service Crystal Awards were: Twenty Years of UCSO Service: Kelly Nawman; Thirty Years of UCSO Service: Tom Morgan.

Sheriff Patton presented James Elsmore with the Sheriff's Office Commendation for his outstanding law enforcement services he has provided to the Sheriff's Office. James was nominated for going the extra mile for our staff and for doing a great job keeping us up and running on a daily basis. He has assisted every division at the Sheriff's Office with multiple projects and has become the "CSI computer technician" for our Investigative Division. He is always willing to help, coming in on Holidays and allowing deputies to come to his house while he is off duty to fix an IT problem. James is a member of the Union County IT Department and has recently been assigned to spend a portion of his day specifically at the Sheriff's Office. We appreciate you, James! Congratulations!

Sheriff Patton honored, Deputy Rod Wilson and Det. Nate Stone with the Sheriff's Office Commendation for their investigative work to locate and identify suspects that were tied to five different burglaries in Union County. The burglaries involved the theft of multiple guns and the attempted forced entry into a Crottinger Road residence, where an eighty-seven year old victim was present. Their initiative and quick thinking led to the identification of these suspects, their conviction and prison sentence.

Dep. Josh Campbell and Josh Kent were awarded with the Sheriff's Office Certificate of Merit for an outstanding performance of duty that involved the protection of property and showed a determination and initiative on their part under difficult conditions. On April 25, 2017, Deputies Josh Campbell and Josh Kent were dispatched to a barn fire at a residence on West Magnetic Street in Magnetic Springs. Deputy Kent, who was in field training at the time, and Deputy Campbell, arrived prior to the fire department. They were able to use the extinguisher kept in the cruiser to stop the barn fire before it destroyed the barn and its contents. The fire was later determined to be arson.

Sergeant Mike Burton and Deputy Scott Anspach were awarded with the Sheriff's Office Certificate of Merit for an outstanding performance of duty under difficult conditions that involved the protection of life and showed a determination and initiative under very challenging circumstances. On August 16, 2017, Sgt. Burton and Dep. Anspach were dispatched to a possible domestic at a residence on May Street in Magnetic Springs. Upon arrival, they found a 52 year old female unresponsive with empty pill bottles near her. The victim was surrounded by two large dogs that knew something was wrong and were unwilling to leave the victim. Working together, Sgt. Burton and Dep. Anspach were able to extricate the victim while ensuring the dogs did not attack either of them and the victim. The deputies provided care until EMS arrived on scene and transported the victim to Memorial Hospital.

Sheriff Patton presented Lieutenant Mike Justice with the Sheriff's Office Citation Award for outstanding contributions to law enforcement through the successful leadership of the UCSO Investigations Division, the Multi Agency Drug Enforcement Task Force, and the Multi County Crash Investigations Team. Lt. Justice was nominated for his degree of professional excellence, for leading by example and for his ability to build partnerships with multiple agencies. His communication skills and willingness to assist with on-call duty, demonstrate his desire to make those he supervises a success. He was instrumental in the launch of the UCSO drone program and took on the responsibility of becoming a certified pilot. He continues to implement new technology, software, and practices that improve the many projects that he is involved in. He fosters great working relationships with UCSO staff and continues to develop and share a level of knowledge that promotes the Sheriff's Office and helps our staff be the best they can be. He is a valuable asset to this agency.

Congratulations to all of the award recipients!

We appreciate all that you do for our agency.

On March 16, 2018, the Marysville Knights of Columbus Council 9526 presented Deputy Kevin Weller with the 2018 Blue Coat of Honor Award. The Knights of Columbus Blue Coat of Honor Award began in 1973, as a way to honor police officers and firefighters in recognition of serving the community.
